Progenitors in the Wurttemberg Region, Germany
of the New York State
Wagar-Wager-Weger Families

Compiled and produced by Paul W. Prindle, Darien, Conn. from data collected locally by Commander Howard Carlyle Wagar, USNR, Fairmont, Minn., and data gathered in Germany by the genealogist, Herr Egon Oertel, Rymannstr. 14, Oehringen, Germany for a group of descendants headed by Commander Wagar.

So many records have been accumulated over the past ten years that this compiler felt it desirable to arrange them in genealogical form for clarity, preservation and use.

Additional early records are being sought in Germany and Austria, and records of American descendants in the male line are being compiled by Mr. C. E. Wager, 1306 E. Fairmount Avenue, Milwaukee 17, Wisc. Interested descendants are urged to correspond with him.

Progenitors in the Wurttemberg Region, Germany,
of the N. Y. State Wagar-Wager-Weger Families

100.- Thomas Weger, from Spital, Bistum (bishopric or parish) of Salzburg, Austria; d. bef. 4 June 1648. With unknown wife he had:

101.+ i. Georg (George) Weger.

101.- George Weger, of Zell on Aichelberg, Goeppingen district (hereafter referred to as Zell); m. twice:

m.(1) at Zell, 4 June 1648, Margaretha Treher, b. at Zell and christened there 10 Apr. 1626; d. bet. 1661 and 1672; dau. of Leonhard Treher of Zell, a farmer, and his wife Barbara Griebler.

m.(2) at Zell, 18 May 1672, Barbara Hoesch, dau. of Michel Hoesch of Oehmden, Nuertingen district.

Ch. of George Weger, all by 1st wife, Margaretha Treher, and all but Leonard b. and baptized in Zell:

102. i. Margaretha, bp. 2 May 1649; sponsors, Margareta, wife of Kleinen Jochenn Reuters, a trooper from Sweden, and Hans Eyselin, former burgomaster. She died young.

103. ii. Barbara, bp. 3 Dec. 1650; sp., Hans Friedrich Scheufelin (teacher) and Appolonia (wife of Michel Leiblins).

104. iii. Margareta (again), bp. 30 Aug. 1652, with same sp.

105.+ iv. Christianus, bp. 27 Dec. 1654.

106.+ v. Leonhard, b. about Jan. 1656.

107. vi. Georg, bp. 6 Dec. 1657; sp. Hans Friedrich Scheufelin and Miss Veronica von Muenchingen in Kirchheim/Teck (they also witnessed the 1654 bp. of Christian).

108. vii. Johannes, bp. 2 Aug. 1661, with same godparents.

105.- Christianus (Christian, Christmann) Weger, bp. at Zell 27 Dec. 1654; sp., Hans Friedrich Scheufelin and Miss Veronica von Muenchingen in Kirchheim/Teck. He died at Zell and was bur. there 20 Oct. 1691, no age being mentioned. Christian m. twice:

m.(1) at Zell in Aug. 1676, Margaretha N., who d. at Zell and was bur. there 1 Jan. 1690 as Margreta Wegerin, no age shown.

m.(2) at Zell, 16 Sept. 1690, Maria Majerin, father's name not mentioned.

Ch. of Christian Weger, all by 1st wife, Margaretha; and all bp. in Zell:

109.+ i. Hans Jerg, bp. 22 Aug. 1676.

110.+ ii. Hans, bp. 23 Jan. 1678.

111. iii. Margaretha, bp. 7 Nov. 1679; employed at the burgomaster's in Zell. She m. there 2 Feb. 1699, the widower Hans Ulrich Schwenckh, of Zell.

112. iv. Hans Jacob, bp. 11 Oct. 1681.

113. v. Hans Michael, bp. 15 Nov. 1683; d. in Zell and bur. there 18 Nov. 1683.

114. vi. Hans Michael (again), bp. 18 Aug. 1685; d. in Zell and bur. there 26 Apr. 1686.

115. vii. Gottfried, bp. 29 Apr. 1687; d. in Zell and bur. there 9 Aug. 1687.

106.- Leonhard Waeger. Christening books were not found for Zell during this period. Church records were kept in the form of "Souls Registers", in which entries were grouped by families rather than in separate baptism, marriage and death registers arranged chronologically. Leonhard does not appear in George Weger's family group in the Souls Register, but since he lived in Zell from 1686 to 1696 and is recorded in that Register as the head of a family consisting of his wife Katharina and their 5 older children, he is confidently assumed to be a son of George. Supporting such a conclusion is the fact that Leonhard bears the given name of his maternal grandfather, and that he gave the name Hans Jerg (he would be known as "George") to his first-born son, and the name Margreta to his second daughter, following the usual but not invariable custom of naming the eldest son after its paternal grandfather, and the second dau. after its paternal grandmother. Leonhard d. at Poppenweiler, Ludwigsburg district, on 2 Feb. 1731, ae. 75 y. 4 weeks, so was b. about Jan. 1656, which fits nicely into the hiatus between George's 4th and 6th children. He died a widower, of a heart attack, suddenly but serenely.

There is a possibility, however, that Leonard was the son of an unidentified Leonhard and Maria Weger who appeared for the period 1654 to 1678 in Auhausen, near Oettingen, Bavaria. This couple bp. two ch. there: Johannes, bp 15 July 1654; and Leonhard Balthas, 5 June 1657, who migrated to the nearby town of Untersteinbach in 1678. The mother, Maria, was bur. at Auhausen 5 Apr. 1677, ae. 67 (b. ca. 1610), so Leonhard Balthas was doubtless her last child.

By 1697 Leonhard Waeger was shown as a citizen and tailor of Poppenweiler.

The record of the 6 Feb. 1731 inventory and distribution of the 93 Gulden 10 kreuzer net estate of the late Leonhard Waeger, citizen and tailor, appears in File 6, No. 34. His heirs were listed as Anna, wife of Hans Jerg Zollers, citizen-resident of Eibensbach; Margreta, wife Johannes Abel, farm hand with the local tavernkeeper, Jacob Widen; Jacob Waeger, citizen and tailor at Bietigheim; Hans Jerg Waeger, citizen of Poppenweiler; Hans Bernhard Waeger, a local citizen and Leonhard Waeger, a local citizen and vintner.

The record bears the notation, "The deceased claims to be related to Sct Peter in Tyrol. He leaves to him his best articles of clothing. The son Bernhard is to keep the above mentioned clothing until the personal servant returns at Michaelmas from Wiesensteig. At that time this matter is to be settled. The remainder, if any, should go to the six children. The above mentioned articles of clothing are valued at 3 florins, 39 kreuzers."

Anna Catharina, his wife, d. at Poppenweiler 22 Dec. 1726, painfully and serenely, ae. 69, from "Stechkrankheit" (stabbing pains?). The Inventory and Division of the estate of the late Anna Catharina, local resident and late wife of Leonhard Waeger, citizen and tailor, appears in File 6, No. 12, under date 13 March 1730. The net 76 Fl. 37 Kr. estate included real estate and a home (later owned by Hans Jerg Waeger) appraised at 110 Fl.; a Wash and Brook House, 20 Fl.; Acreage, Winegardens and Meadows, 159 Fl. 30 Kr.; and Carts and Wagons, 26 Fl. 58 Kr.

Ch. of Leonhard Waeger and his wife, Anna Catharina (1st 5 b. and bp. in Zell, others in Poppenweiler):

116. i. Anna, bp. 15 Jan. 1686; sp., Hans Lutz, and Hans Ochsenwadel's wife Anna. In 1731 she lived in Eibensbach Gueglinger Amts, Heilbronn district. Anna m. at Poppenweiler, 10 Nov. 1705, Hans Jerg Zoller, weaver's helper, b. 30 Dec. 1683 in Schanbach parsonage, Aichelberg, Esslingen district, son of Anton Zoller, burger and weaver of that place, and his wife Margretha.
117. ii. Hans Jerg, bp. 9 Jan. 1689; d. in Zell and bur. there 27 Jan. 1692.
118. iii. Margreta, bp. 24 Sept. 1691; m. in Poppenweiler 13 June 1719, Johannes Abele, son of Abeli Abele, a burger of Hohenacker, Waiblingen district (in 1731 he was a farmhand in Poppenweiler).
- 119.+ iv. Jakob (Johann Jakob), bp. 25 Aug. 1693.

- 120.+ v. Hans Joerg (again), bp. 10 Apr. 1696.
- 121.+ vi. Johann Bernhard, bp. 31 Jan. 1698.
- 122. vii. Unnamed child, b., d. and bur. 6 Nov. 1698.
- 123. viii. Catharine Barbara, bp. 14 Dec. 1700, d. at Poppenweiler 31 Oct. 1702 ae 2 y. 1 mo. 14 da.
- 124. ix. (Hans) Christianus, bp. 15 Oct. 1702; d. bef. 1731.
- 125.+ x. Hans Leonhard, bp. 23 May 1705.

109.- Hans Jerg Waeger, bp. in Zell 22 Aug. 1676; sp. Hans Greiner, "Krauskopf", and Anna, his sister. Jerg d. in Benningen, Ludwigsburg district, 20 July 1753, as an old, worn out man, sick over the years and days. Having suffered from the recurring "Stechen" (stabbing pains?) and "Hitze" sickness, he was overcome by it and lived only 4-1/2 days. He was 80-1/2 years and some days old.

The 25 Aug. 1753 record of the "not very large and heavily encumbered property of Hans Jeorg Weeger in Benningen, who died on 20 July 1753," is found in File 9, No. 20 of Inventories and Distributions, Benningen County Archives, Ludwigsburg District. Heirs by his first wife, Anna Catharina Kneulin, are shown as the unnm. dau. Margaret; Johannes Weeger, wine-gardener of Hoheneck; and the late Barbara, who m. Michael Danzern of Neckarweihingen, who left three surviving children. Heirs by the second wife, Ursula, nee Zisgo, were "Jacob Weeger, former citizen-resident in Hoheneck, who however emigrated to Pennsylvania in May of this year;" and Barbara Weeger, unnm. dau.

Hans Jerg Waeger was a burger, farmer and vineyard owner in Benningen. In 1698 he was living in Notzingen, Nuertingen district, and in 1710 (temporarily), was a burger in Massenbach, Heilbronn district. He m. twice:

m.(1) at Notzingen, in 1698, Anna Catharina Kneulin, b. in Welling, Nuertingen district and bp. 22 Aug. 1671 in Notzingen, dau. of the deceased Bartholomaeus Kneulin, burger of Welling, and his wife Anna Catharina Endriss. Anna Catharina Kneulin Waeger d. 16 Oct. 1710 in Massenbach, housewife, no age shown. The text for her funeral service was II Timothy 4:7-8.

m.(2) at Benningen, 17 Feb. 1711, Ursula Maria Zisgau, b. 20 Dec. 1669 in Rielingshausen, Backnang district; dau. of the deceased George Zisgau, burger and vineyard owner of Rielingshausen, and his wife Maria Buerger. Ursula had m. (1), in Steinheim/Murr, Ludwigsburg district, 9 Feb. 1697, Caspar Sattler, son of the deceased Benningen farmer, George Sattler.

Ursula, housewife, d. 7 Dec. 1749 in Benningen from dropsy, ae. 76, weakened and worn out by long years of pains of the joints, and bedridden for four weeks at the end.

Ch. of Hans Jerg Waeger by 1st wife, Anna Catharina Kneulin:

- 126. i. Margaretha, b. abt. 11 Apr. 1698; d. unnm. at Benningen 25 Jan. 1774, of dropsy, ae 75 y. 9 mo. 6 da. Margaretha had 3 ch., all illegitimate:
 - (a) Margaretha Maier, b. at Benningen and bp. there 9 Dec. 1721, dau. of Jacob Meyer, a soldier in the Sicilian Regiment. Margaretha m. at Benningen 6 May 1755, Michael Lang, citizen and shop-keeper there; she d. there 5 Feb. 1803, ae. 81 y.
 - (b) Johan George, who d. at Benningen 16 May 1729, mother recorded as Anna Maria (i). No record of birth at Benningen.
 - (c) Unknown child.
- 127. ii. Anna Catharina, b. abt. July 1700; d. unnm. at Benningen 3 Feb. 1721 of inflammatory fever, ae. 20 y. 7 mo.
- 128.+ iii. Johannes, record of bp. not found, but b. ca. 1705.

- 128A. iv. Barbara, record of bp. not found. She m. at Neckarweihingen, Ludwigsburg district, 23 Oct. 1731, Johann George Danzer, son of Michael Danzer, citizen and stone cutter of that place.

She was d. by 12 June 1775, when the distribution of the estate of her brother Johannes referred to her as the "late sister Barbara of the deceased, wife of Michael (sic) Danzer." Her three ch. were named in the distribution: 1. Margaretha Langin, of Benningen; 2. Michael Danzer, a disabled ducal (soldier?) of Neckarweihingen; and 3. Bernhard Danzer, living in Prussian Pomerania.

This Barbara is not to be confused with her half-sister of the same given name, who received a legacy in her own name.

129. v. Hans Jerg, b. abt. Jan. 1709; d. at Massenbach 14 July 1710, ae. 1-1/2 y.

Ch. of Hans Jerg Waeger by 2nd wife, Ursula Maria Zisgau:

- 130.+ vi. Hans Jacob, bp. 29 June 1712.

131. vii. Barbara, bp. at Benningen 25 Oct. 1715; m. there 3 Feb. 1761, Johann Jacob Kloefer, widower, and citizen and weaver of Poppenweiler. As "Barbara Weegerin, half-sister of the deceased, at present Kloeferisches wife in Benningen", she received a legacy of 25 Gulden in cash in the 1775 distribution of the estate of Johannes Weeger, former mayor of Hohenock.

110.- Hans Weger, bp. at Zell 23 Jan. 1678; sp. "Curly-headed" Hans Greiner, and Anna, his sister.

He served abt. 1700 in Dettingen, prob. "unter Tech", Nuertingen district. The church registers for that locality for the period prior to 1808 were destroyed in an air raid, 20 Apr. 1945, so the record of his m. and ch. is not available.

Despite the unsavory character of some of his descendants, it seems quite probable that the Johann Weeger (or Waeger) of Holzheim, Goepingen district, was the Hans Weger, bp. 1678 in Zell, Goepingen district. Johann was in 1703 a citizen and farrier of Holzheim, and in 1731 was in the Unterberken community, Oberberken, Waiblingen district.

Johann Weeger had 1 known ch.:

- 132.+ i. Johann Jakob, b. Holzheim, Goepingen district, ca. 1703.

119.- Johann Jakob Waeger, bp. Zell, Goepingen district, 25 Aug. 1693. He was a citizen and tailor in Bietigheim, Ludwigsburg district, where he d. 22 Mar. 1750, ae. 54 y. (sic). He m. there 17 Nov. 1716, Christina Tritschler, b. there 23 Sept. 1691; d. there 31 Jan. 1762, dau. of Daniel Tritschler, citizen and tailor at Bietigheim.

Ch. of Johann Jakob Waeger and his wife Christina Tritschler, all b. and bp. at Bietigheim:

133. i. Johann Jakob, b. 23 Feb. 1718; d. Bietigheim 8 Oct. 1728, ae. 11 y.
 134. ii. Christina Catharina, b. 11 Mar. 1719; d. 1793.
 135. iii. Dorothea Rosina, b. 13 Dec. 1720.
 136. iv. Justina Sibylla, b. 17 Mar. 1722; d. y.
 137. v. Daniel Christoph, b. 18 Apr. 1723.
 138. vi. Justina Sibylla (again), b. 13 Nov. 1724.
 139. vii. Georg Martin, b. 9 Sept. 1727; d. Bietigheim 1 Nov. 1727, ae. 7 weeks.

- 140. viii. Magdalena, b. 16 May 1729.
- 141. ix. Johann Jakob, b. 19 May 1732; d. y.
- 142. x. Johann Jakob (again), b. 12 June 1734.
- 143. xi. Elisabetha Margaretha, b. 15 Feb. 1738; d. at Bietigheim 29 May 1739.

120.- Hans Joerg Waeger, bp. at Zell, Goepingen district, 10 Apr. 1696. In 1725 he was a citizen and weaver at the Schmellenhof community, Wuestenrot, Heilbronn District, and in 1728, of Poppenweiler.

Among the archives of the City Council of Poppenweiler, Ludwigsburg, is a renunciation stating that Johann Georg Weger, former citizen of Poppenweiler, has since 18 Apr. 1737 been a citizen of Sternenfels.

The 1737 renunciation of Johann George was drawn to Sternenfels. He is believed to have arrived in the Port of New York on the ship Amsterdam 12 Oct. 1738, or on the Anne the following day. He was in Rhinebeck Precinct, Dutchess Co., 1740-1; Vette Bergh (Fat Hill) 1745; Beekman Precinct 1745-1758; Crum Elbow Precinct 1758-1762; and Charlotte Precinct 1762; where he d. ca. 1764.

Johann Georg Weger m. 3 times:

- m.(1) at Bietigheim, 22 Aug. 1717, Maria Catharina Ernst, dau. of Conrad Ernst, citizen and butcher of Bietigheim.

Hans Joerg and Maria Catharina were divorced. No ch.

- m.(2) at Wuestenrot, 14 Nov. 1724, Maria Sara Bayhe, dau. of Adam Bayhe of Schmellenhof. Maria d. at Poppenweiler 23 May 1730, ae. 28 y., her death being hastened by her husband's abusive treatment.

The final settlement of the estate of the late "Mariae Sarae", wife of Georg Waeger, local citizen and linenweaver, was made 11 Jan. 1731 (File 6, No. 30). The net estate of 187 Fl. 16 Kr. a "house and adjoining kitchen garden, away in the village between (the properties of) Hans Jerg Kolben and Jerg Fritzen, fronting the street, the rear reaching the church wall; a nearby wash and brook-house, meadows, mill acres, and carts and wagons. Among other items were a Nurnberg Handbook, Wurttembergish Songbook, two small sermon books, a New Testament, and a very small songbook.

Hans Joerg and Maria Sara (Baye) Waeger had 3 ch.:

- 144. i. Maria Margaretha, b. at Schmellenhof 10 Nov. 1725; d. of gout at Poppenweiler, 18 Oct. 1735, ae. 9 y.
- 145. ii. Martin Gottfried, bp. Poppenweiler 22 May 1728; d. there 26 Sept. 1728, ae. 1/4 y.
- 146. iii. Jerg Jakob, bp. 20 July 1729 at Poppenweiler; d. there 7 May 1730, ae. 1-1/2 y. (sic).

- m.(3) at Poppenweiler 5 June 1731, Margaretha Egermayer, dau. of the late Bernhard Egermayer, vine-dresser of Wangen, Stuttgart district.

Ch. of Hans Joerg Waeger and his 3rd wife, Margretha Egermayer, 4 bp. at Poppenweiler, no doubt 1 or more during the 1737-1742 hiatus, and 2 in Dutchess Co., N. Y.:

- 147.+ iv. Johann Eberhardt, bp. 22 Mar. 1732.
- 148. v. Elisabetha Dorothea, bp. 16 Apr. 1733; d. of gout at Poppenweiler 27 July 1733, ae. 3 mo.
- 149. vi. Gottlieb, bp. 9 Aug. 1734; d. at Poppenweiler 13 June 1735, ae. 1 y. 7 wks.
- 150. vii. Johann Christoph, bp. 12 Sept. 1736; d. 9 June 1737.
- 150A.+ viii. Johann Niclass, b. 10 Aug. 1743.
- 150B. ix. Anna Maria, b. 19 May 1745 and bp. 23 June 1745 in the Lutheran Evangelical Church in the Clove, at Backway, near Poughquag, Dutchess Co., N. Y.

121.- Johann Bernhard Waeger (Weeger), bp. at Poppenweiler 31 Jan. 1698; d. there 25 Mar. 1757, after a long period of consumption, from catarrh fever, with stabbing pains, ae. 58 y. 2 mo. Bernhard was a citizen and tailor of Poppenweiler, and m. there 29 Jan. 1726, Maria Barbara Bez, bp. there 2 Apr. 1710, d. there 17 Feb. 1778, dau. of Johannes Bez (citizen of Poppenweiler) and his wife Anna Marie Property owned in 1737 by Hans Bernhard Weeger is shown in the Taxes and Property Book :264. It includes a house, barns, cellar and courtyard in the Rellingsgasse, between (property of) Jacob Wibeln and Friedrich Schotten (on which a smoked hen is due annually to the Cellary of Marbach), valued at 68 Fl. 5 Kr.; three plots aggregating over 20 acres and assessed at 115 Fl. 6 Kr.; two wine gardens valued at 85 Fl. 16 Kr.; one meadow worth 46 Fl. 48 Kr.; and two grass (hay?) gardens assessed at 29 Fl. 4 Kr. In 1769 these properties were shown as taken over, at auction sale, 1/4th part each by Bernhards' son Daniel and his sons-in-law Altner (Ahner), Laffer (Hoffer) and Christian Fausel.

The age-old mother-in-law problem is illustrated in the following extract from page 36(b) of the earliest court book of Poppenweiler: "March 7, 1737. Dispute between Johannes Betzen's widow and her son-in-law, Bernhard Weger, concerning a certain claim, as well as her right to reside with him, that it is impossible for her to reside with him any longer because of his behavior."

Very important documents, from a genealogical standpoint, are found in Archives of the Poppenweiler City Council, Ludwigsburg District.

A document dated 13 Dec. 1768 (File 19, No. 39) recounts the voluntary distribution of the estate of Maria Barbara, widow of the late Johann Bernhard Weeger, former citizen-resident and vintner, on account of her approaching old age and other infirmities. Her net estate of 778 Gulden, 28 Kreuzer, 3 Pfennings is to be distributed to her 8 named children. There is a provision that the four children who emigrated to America and took the entire share of their father's ancestral estate with them are, after the death of their mother, to receive an additional 50 Gulden each.

Another document, dated 25 Feb. 1778 and found in File 24, No. 9, accounts for the distribution of the 105 Gulden, 49 Kreuzer net estate of the late Barbara, widow of the late Bernhard Weeger. "About four weeks ago, it has pleased the Master over life and death to take unto himself said Barbara who, at the age of 68 years, passed on after suffering from a clot and stroke, taking her from this life of suffering into Eternity, and she leaves as her heirs the following children", etc.

The references in each document are reproduced below in the respective accounts of the children.

Johann Bernhard and Maria Barbara (Bez) Waeger had 9 ch., all b. and bp. at Poppenweiler:

- 151.+ i. Eberhard, bp. 17 Mar. 1727.
- 152.+ ii. Catharina, bp. 15 Dec. 1729.
- 153.+ iii. Maria Agatha, bp. 17 Jan. 1732.
- 154.+ iv. Bernhard, bp. 27 Sept. 1734.
- 155. v. Maria Barbara, bp. 6 Mar. 1737; d. of convulsions, ae. 3/4 y., 9 Nov. 1737, at Poppenweiler.
- 156.+ vi. Maria Barbara (again), bp. 2 Jan. 1739.
- 157.+ vii. Johann Friedrich, bp. 6 Sept. 1742.
- 158.+ viii. Anna Maria, bp. 23 Aug. 1746.
- 159.+ ix. Daniel, bp. 12 Jan. 1750.

125.- Johann Leonard Waeger, bp. 23 May 1705 at Poppenweiler, where he was a citizen and vine-dresser.

The earliest court book in the archives of the City Council of Poppenweiler, Ludwigsburg, contains the following statement on page 48(b) under date of 13 Feb. 1738:

"Leonhard Weger, former citizen and wine-gardner, told the Court in Session that he and some other persons have the intention to emigrate to America, or the New World. In view of the fact that he has paid his debts and discharged all other obligations from the proceeds of the sale of his home and other possessions, and in view of his and his wife's willingness to forego all claims to the benefits, rights and privileges of citizenship on their and their children's behalf for life, no objections have been made to their emigration; however he was requested to sign his petition in his own handwriting."

The renunciation itself, signed by Leonhard, is translated as follows:

"Johann Leonard Weger, former citizen-resident and vintner under the Poppenweiler-Marbach Administration, and his wife Catharina, nee Netherin, herewith renounce their citizenship, and that of their children, Paul and Eleanor, since they are moving into strange lands; and with them Barbara, nee Netherin, said Leonard Weeger's real sister (-in-law), widow of the late Jacob Mayer, citizen-resident and blacksmith in Poppenweiler."

The extensive properties Leonhard disposed of prior to his leaving for the New World are shown in the Poppenweiler Taxes and Property Book for 1737, p. 257 ff. Included are a small house and courtyard in the Rellingsgasse; 3 plots of acreage in Hochdorf, 2 in Erdmannhausen, and 3 in Marbach; 4 wine gardens; 4 meadow plots; and 1 grass and herb garden - all appraised at a total of 267 Gulden, 40 Kreuzer.

Presumably the name of Leonard's wife was Catharina Margretha, or Mayretha Catharina. They are believed to have arrived at the Port of New York 12 Oct. 1738 on the ship Amsterdam, or on the Anne the following day.

Leonard settled in Rhinebeck Precinct, Dutchess Co. by 1740 and in 1759 gave land on which the Wurttemberg Church was built. He was active in the church and lived nearby in a house still standing, occupied in 1953 by Alvah Frost.

Leonard d. after 1775 and was probably bur. in the cemetery of the Wurttemberg Church near Rhinebeck. He was twice m. and presumably had ch. b. in the 1738-1745 hiatus:

m.(1) at Poppenweiler, 5 Nov. 1726, Margretha Catharina (or Catharina Margretha) Nether (or Netter), bp. there 6 Nov. 1697, dau. of the late Johann Ludwig Nether (citizen of Poppenweiler) and his wife Eleanora. Leonard and his 1st wife had 6 ch. b. and bp. there:

- 160. i. Veronica, bp. 18 Oct. 1727; d. Poppenweiler 19 Feb. 1728, ae. 1/4 y
- 161. ii. Barbara, bp. 31 Dec. 1728; d. Poppenweiler 27 Apr. 1730, ae. 1-1/2 y
- 162.+ iii. Paulus, bp. 27 Apr. 1731.
- 163.+ iv. Eleonora, bp. 19 Aug. 1733.
- 164. v. Johann Jakob, bp. 10 Sept. 1735; d. at Poppenweiler of convulsions. 31 Oct. 1735.
- 165. vi. Bernhard, bp. 1 Sept. 1737; d. at Poppenweiler of convulsions, 11 Sept. 1737, ae. 9 d. (sic).

m.(2) Maria Barbara, possibly his sister-in-law, Barbara Nether(in), widow of Jacob Mayer. As shown in the 1738 renunciation, Barbara accompanied her sister and Leonard to America. However, the Archives of Poppenweiler, Ludwigsburg District, Germany, contain the 13 Apr. 1750 renunciation of the 23-year-old Jacob Brust (son of the late Jerg Brusten, former citizen-resident and vintner of Poppenweiler) intending to depart for Pennsylvania to live with his aunt (his mother's sister), Barbara Netterin, widow of Jacob Mayer, because she was without heirs. Barbara, 2nd wife of Johann Leonard Waeger, had a child born in 1746 and it appears improbable that the 1750 Poppenweiler record would refer to her as it did, had that Barbara been Leonard's wife.

Leonard and Barbara had 2 ch. b. and bp. at Rhinebeck, N. Y.:

- 165A. vii. Elisabeth, bp. 11 May 1746 at Rhinebeck, N. Y.
 165B.+ viii. Sebastian, b. 3 Nov. 1748.

128.- Johannes Wæger, bp. record not found; b. abt. 19 Nov. 1705, for he d. at Hoheneck of apoplexy 30 May 1775, ae. 69 y. 6 mo. 11 d. He m. twice:

- m.(1) at Hoheneck, Ludwigsburg district, 4 Feb. 1728, Sabina Barbara Hirtlin, b. there 9 May 1697, dau. of Marx Hirtlin (teacher at Hoheneck) and his wife Margareta Eccardt. Sabina d. 26 Dec. 1768, childless.
 m.(2) at Hoheneck, 5 Aug. 1769, Maria Elizabetha Eisenbeiss, widow of Matthaeus Blumhardt, senator. No ch.

The 12 June 1775 probate of the estate of the late Johannes Weeger, "who was mayor here for a long time, and senior judge", is found in File No. 177, Inventories and Distributions, Hoheneck Division, Ludwigsburg County Archives. His very substantial net estate amounted to 3,912 florins (gulden), 6 kreutzer, 1-3/4 hellers. The dowry of his first wife came to about 430 gulden, and that of his second wife, to more than 2,410 gulden. The widow was called Maria Elizabetha, nee Eisenbeiss, of Nekkarweihingen. Legacies were provided to the three children of the testator's sister, Barbara Danzer, and to his half-sister, Barbara (sic) Kloepper.

Johannes Wæger's will was written in his own hand. Beside his signature is his seal, which shows a grape (he was a wine gardener, by occupation) and his initials "H. W.", the first letter being for Hans, the diminutive of Johannes. Item 4 of the will leaves, to "my half-brother, Jacob Weeger, who emigrated a long time ago to the new land, America, as his share, 25 Gulden." A most interesting letter dated 1767, from Johann Jacob Weeger of Albany Co., N. Y., son of this Jacob Weeger, to his Uncle Johannes in Hoheneck, and a copy of Johannes' letter in reply, were found in File No. 177. Translations of these most interesting and amusing letters appear as Supplement A.

130.- Hans (Johann) Jacob Weger or We(e)ger, bp. at Benningen 29 June 1712. He was a vine-dresser in Eglosheim, Ludwigsburg district, and in 1750-3a citizen and vine-dresser in Hoheneck, Ludwigsburg district.

Jacob m. at Eglosheim 1 or 11 Feb. 1738, Maria Magdalena Kuohm, b. there and bp. there 17 Jan. 1710, dau. of Matthaeus Kuohm (citizen of Eglosheim) and his wife Anna Magdalena Probst. Maria had m.(1) at Eglosheim, 26 Apr. 1735 the widower Matthaeus Brinsinger (d. 22 Oct. 1735), citizen and day laborer of that locality and son of Hans Joerg Brinsinger and his wife Katharina Kraft.

Johann Jacob Weger and his wife and children emigrated* to America in May 1753, via Pennsylvania, as shown in the 25 Aug. 1753 probate record of his father's estate (File 9, No. 20, Inventories and Distributions, Benningen County Archives, Ludwigsburg District). He settled in Rhinebeck Precinct, Dutchess Co. N.Y. in 1755; rem. to Crum Elbow Precinct by 1760, and to Charlotte Precinct in 1762. On 26 May 1764 he removed to Rensselaerwyck, near Centre Brunswick, then Albany (now Rensselaer) Co. On 26 May 1764 he leased a farm from Stephen Van Rensselaer, and was living there with his son Jacob, Jr. when the latter, by letter dated 1767 (see Supplement A), described the property as "3 hours from the town of Albany, at the road to Hosig (Hoosic); there we have a piece of land from a gentleman, about 150 morgen, on which we have been free for 10 years."

151.- Eberhard Waeger or Weeger, b. at Poppenweiler and bp. there 17 Mar. 1727; m. at Rhinebeck, N.Y. 22 Dec. 1754 Catharine Sheever (or Shafer) b. 17 Oct. 1736, sister of the Elisabeth Shafer who m. Eberhard's brother, 154.- Bernhard. The ancestry of the Shafer sisters is given under Elisabeth's account.

In the 1768 distribution of the estate of his mother (File 19, No. 39) the first child mentioned is "Eberhard Weeger, age 41 yrs., who, however, did move to America about 18 years ago, and it is assumed that he married there and is still alive". The 1778 distribution (File 24, No. 9) calls him "Eberhard Woeger, who already has emigrated to America 28 years ago."

Eberhard lived in Rhinebeck Precinct, Dutchess Co., N.Y. from 1753 to 1777 except for the period 1757-8, when he was in Crum Elbow Precinct.

Eberhard and Catharine (Shafer) Weeger had 9 ch., all b. and bp. near Rhinebeck:

- 200. i. Jacob, b. 26 Sept. 1755, bp. 12 Oct. 1755. Settled in Ontario, Can

- g. Cornelia Becker, bp. 20 Dec. 1767.

153.- Maria Agatha Waeger or Weeger, b. at Poppenweiler and bp. there 17 Jan. 1732.

In the 1768 distribution of her mother's estate (File 19, No. 39) she is referred to as "Maria Agatha, married to the Ducal Grenadier, Christian Fausel, who also witnessed this matter in her name."

The 1778 distribution (File 24, No. 9) refers to her as "Christian Fausel's housewife, whom he left (sic) with three children, namely:

- (a) Christian (Fausel), about 12 years old;
- (b) Augusta (Fausel), about 10 years of age;
- (c) Catherina Barbara (Fausel), 7 years old,

who are represented by their father, Christian Fausel."

154.- Bernhard (or Barent) Waeger (or Weeger), b. at Poppenweiler and bp. there 27 Sept. 1734; d. 19 Apr. 1801 and bur. on Wagar Mountain near Ghent, N.Y.; m. at Rhinebeck, N.Y. 16 Sept. 1761, Elisabeth Sheever (or Shafer) b. 1737, sister of the Catharine Shafer who m. Bernhard's brother, 151.- Eberhard, and dau. of Johan Adam Shafer (bp. 3 April 1715 at West Camp) of Rhinebeck, and his wife Gertrude Feller; and granddau. of Justus Hendrick Shaver and his wife Susannah Agnes Backus. Justus probably came from Nassau on the Lahn, about 15 miles above its confluence with the Rhine, near Coblenz. Gertrude Feller was the dau. of Johan Philip Feller (son of Nicholas - will proved 9 Feb. 1763 - and Mary Elisabeth Feller of Guntersblum, about 15 miles down the Rhine from Worms) and his wife Catharine Elisabeth Rown (b. ca. 1695, dau. of Nicholas Rown and his wife Gertrude Steenhof, who came from Oppenheim, about 40 miles above Nassau, and who were in N.Y. State by 1742).

The 1768 distribution of his mother's estate (File 19, No. 39) refers to him as "Johann Bernard Weeger who also went to America about 18 years ago with his two sisters (sic - "siblings" must have been intended), married over there, and according to information requested and received, is still alive." In the 1778 distribution he is merely called "Bernhard Weeger, also moved to America 28 years ago."

Barent took a lease 21 May 1770 from the Van Rennselaers, to a farm near Ghent, Columbia Co., N. Y.

Barent and Elisabeth (Shafer) Wagar had 6 ch., b. and bp. in Dutchess and Columbia Counties, N. Y.:

158.- Anna Maria Waeger or Weeger, b. at Poppenweiler and bp. there 23 Aug. 1746. The 1768 distribution of her mother's estate (File 19, No. 39) calls her "Anna Maria, wife of Christoph Ahner (Eberhard), resident citizen and carpenter." In the 1778 probate record (File 24, No. 9), she appears as "Anna Maria, housewife, relative of Eberhard Christ., citizen and carpenter." She had m.(1) at Poppenweiler 26 Jan. 1768, Eberhard Christoph Ahner, citizen and carpenter of that town, and son of Christoph Ahner. She m.(2nd) 7 May 1782 at Poppenweiler, the widower Johann Martin Blind, citizen of Affalterbach, Marbach district.

159.- Daniel Waeger or Weeger, b. at Poppenweiler and bp. there 12 Jan. 1750. The 1768 settlement of his mother's estate (File 19, No. 39) calls him "Daniel Weeger, 18 years of age, who still lives here"; while the 1778 probate records (File 24, No. 9) merely refer to "Daniel Weeger, citizen of Pleidesheim, who has witnessed these proceedings." Daniel d. there 31 Aug. 1826.

Daniel m. 15 Feb. 1774 Maria Elisabeth Klien, b. 14 Mar. 1739, d. 19 Jan 1822, widow of Johann Georg Stetter, citizen and vintner of Pleidelsham, and had 7 ch.; all bp. in the Evangelical Church there:

Letter dated 27 September 1767, from 166.-Johann Jacob Weeger of Albany County, N.Y., to his uncle, 128.-Johannes Weeger.

"I wish the blessings of God to Johannes Weger and his wife, Hans Jerg Kraus and his wife, and all my friends and cousins at Hoheneckh and Benningen.

"Because of the ardent love in my heart I cannot delay writing a few lines to you at this opportunity and tell you how we are. We will be pleased if this finds you all well; we ourselves are all well and sound, as long as God wills. We are still living under the New York Government, but in another County called Albany County, about 20 hours farther up, 3 hours from the town of Albany at the road to Hosig (Hoosic); there we have a piece of land from a gentleman, about 150 morgen, on which we have been free for 10 years, after giving tithes of "rocken" and corn. I myself, Jacob, am living on it with my father, am married, and have 3 children - 2 sons and a daughter. My sister is married, too, and has a young son; my brother Thomas is married, too, and has a young daughter. My other two "geschwister" (siblings - either brothers or sisters) are still here. We have good living conditions here in corn and cattle; we have 5 horses, 15 black cattle, 14 sheep, 20 swine, and plenty of wood, because wood is plentiful here.

"I would like to see that the poor men who are having such hard times over there in Germany, might have the wood we burn in the fields. I would like nothing better than to speak with you once more again in person; God may bring that about, if all is well. My father and I request you to report of the heritage, because grandfather (109.-Hans Jerg Waeger) has died, and we suppose we are to receive something. Please send news and add a little seed of aspe, because I would like to have it. I know of nothing further to write to you, except to send kind greetings from me, my wife, my father and mother, sisters and brothers and that we put you all under God's protection.

Young Johann Jacob Weeger

"P.S.

Let all our friends at Hoheneckh and Benningen read this, and don't be displeased because this is written hurriedly at night. Father was not at home, and the bearer of the letter passed here."

The answer to this letter revealed one reason why the good mayor was able to leave so substantial an estate. Here is his reply to his nephew's letter:

"Father has died, but the greater part of his estate went to pay his debts, with little remaining. In his will he gave all, including his furniture, to sister Margareth (126.-Margaretha); thus nothing was due you. Our brother-in-law, Hannes Jerg Krauss (where does he fit in?) died about 4 years ago.

If you write again, please address your letter to the Benningen, not to me. I had to pay 1 fl. (postage) for the letter. I hoped the Benningens would suffer a half, but they did not do so, which seemed to me improper and disturbing. By the "Neulaender" I sent you a Wurtemberg Singing Book, which you surely must have received. It cost 1 fl. 12 gr."

Supplement B

The Adolph Gerber emigrant lists, appearing in The Pennsylvania German Folklore Society, Vol. 10 (1947), give under Ludwigsburg Protocol, 6 Apr. 1763, to "Neu York," Johann Jacob Weger, wife Maria Magdalena, and their children. The birthdate given for Anna Barbara, 11 Sept. 1750, corresponds exactly with the Hoheneck record and leaves no doubt as to the identity of these emigrants.

Supplement C

Unplaced Early-Generation N.Y. State Wagars-Wagers-Waegers

Margaretha Waeger, who settled in Dutchess Co. near the Wurttemberg Church, Rhinebeck. She may have been a dau. of 120.- Hans Joerg Waeger, b. in the 1737-1742 hiatus, or of 125.- Johann Leonard Waeger, b. in the 1738-1745 hiatus. Since she lived near Leonard's home, she may have been his daughter, but the alleged 1756 birth of her first child, and the fact that she gave the name George to her first-born son, provides some support to the possibility that she was the dau. of 120.- Hans Joerg (George) Waeger.

Margaretha and her husband, Johannes Marquardt, had 11 known children, bp. records from Dutchess Co. sources, others from family records:

- a. Barbara Marquardt, b. 1756; d. 6 Dec. 1828.
- b. George Marquardt, b. 1758; d. 7 Apr. 1839.
- c. Jacob Marquardt, bp. 2 Oct. 1761.
- d. Elizabeth Marquardt, b. 20 Dec. 1763.
- e. Maria Agnes Marquardt, b. 1, bp. 12 Nov. 1765.
- f. Gertrude Marquardt, b. 27 Nov., bp. 26 Dec. 1767.
- g. David Marquardt, b. 28 Sept., bp. 1 Oct. 1769.
- h. Margaret Marquardt, b. 22 or 29 Aug., bp. 15 Sept. 1771.
- i. Johannes Marquardt, Jr., b. 29 Nov. 1773.
- j. Frederick Marquardt, b. 17, bp. 24 Sept. 1775.
- k. Anna Marquardt, b. 15 Dec. 1779, bp. 23 Dec. 1780.

Johann Leonhard Waeger of Dutchess Co., Rensselaerwyck and Schaghticoke, N. Y. Since he removed to Rensselaerwyck in 1764 with the brothers Johann Eberhardt and Johann Niclass Waeger, he was probably their brother, and a son of 120.- Hans Joerg Waeger, b. in the 1737-1742 period. He may, however, have been a son of 125.- Johann Leonard Waeger, b. in the 1738-1745 period.

Johann Leonhard Waeger and his wife Christina had 6 known children, the last five having been b. and bp. in Rensselaerwyck or Schaghticoke:

- i. Gertrout, b. 17 Sept. 1763 in Dutchess Co.
- ii. Anna Maria, b. 17 Aug. 1765.
Hiatus
- iii. Conrad, b. 15 Nov., bp. 29 Dec. 1778; d. 11 Mar. 1857.
- iv. Johann Leonhard, b. 8 Feb., bp. 18 Mar. 1781.
- v. Christina, b. 26 Aug., bp. 14 Sept. 1783.
- vi. Michael, b. 10, bp. 26 Mar. 1786.

INDEX TO PERSONS

In parts of Germany, particularly in the Palatinate, Johann was not strictly a given name but was used, together with a true given name, to distinguish a male from an older one of the same given name. Thus Johann (or Hans) Jacob Wagar would never be known as Johann or Hans alone, but would be called either Johann (or Hans) Jacob or, usually, just Jacob alone. Johann was not equivalent to the English name John. Johannes was the German equivalent of John.

In this index a Wagar bearing the name Johann Jacob is indexed both under Johann Jacob and under Jacob. Exact years of birth are given if known, and estimated birthdates are provided for all persons born Wagar-Wager-Weger if exact years are unknown. Principal references are underlined in cases of multiple page references for Wagars.
